

FULL MOON IN TAURUS · MONDAY, 26 OCTOBER 2026

Aries

This ritual is for money, income, and material security.

There is a particular kind of quiet that lives in a well-stocked pantry, a paid bill, a coat that keeps out the cold — and tonight you are building the conditions for that quiet.

PREPARATION

Face north. Clear the surface before you — move anything cluttered or careless aside, and lay down only what belongs to this moment. Silence your phone and let the room settle into its own quiet weight. Pour a glass of red wine or strong black tea, hold the cup in both hands, and feel the warmth move into your palms before you take the first slow sip. Close your eyes and picture your finances not as numbers but as ground beneath your feet — solid, dark, real earth that holds you — see coins, see a full pantry, see yourself paying what you owe and still having more. Open your eyes only when that image feels less like a wish and more like a memory of something coming. The ritual begins now.

THE RITUAL

Light the red candle and place it at the center of your space, watching the flame steady itself until it burns without flickering, a small sign that the energy in the room has settled with you.

Hold the carnelian in your dominant hand and press it firmly against your palm — feel its weight, its warmth — and let the word abundance move through your mind not as a prayer but as a statement of what already belongs to you.

Take a pinch of cinnamon and dust it slowly around the base of the candle in a clockwise circle, speaking aloud or under your breath the specific amount of money or the exact resource you are calling in, because precision is the language of Taurus energy.

Set the carnelian inside the cinnamon circle, directly beside the candle, and sit with both hands resting open in your lap, palms up, for five full breaths — breathing in the spiced air and letting material security feel like something your body already knows how to carry.

When you are ready, press two fingers to the carnelian one last time and then close your hands into loose fists, as if you are holding what is yours — let the red candle burn down safely, and leave the stone where it is until the full moon passes.
