

NEW MOON IN SAGITTARIUS · THURSDAY, 6 DECEMBER 2029

Leo

This ritual is for romance, creativity, and joy in all its forms.

Joy is not something the universe withholds from the serious and the disciplined — it is the very current that makes everything else move.

PREPARATION

Face south. Let the room be warm — light already burns, or wrap yourself in something soft before you begin. Silence what can be silenced and let the rest fade naturally into background. Pour a glass of red wine or something sparkling, and hold it at the level of your heart for a breath before sipping with a small private smile — this cup is yours. Close your eyes and picture a moment of pure joy: something made by your hands, a laugh that arrived without warning, desire that was fully met — let the image glow and pulse until your body remembers what pleasure actually feels like. Open your eyes only when you feel something close to delight. Now it begins.

THE RITUAL

Light the gold candle with a sense of occasion, as if you are opening a celebration, because under this New Moon in Sagittarius you are — you are celebrating the right to want and to make and to feel fully alive.

Hold the pyrite in your hand and let it catch the candlelight, turning it slowly, and name aloud the creative desire or romantic wish you are planting tonight — not apologetically, but with full conviction.

Light the frankincense and let the smoke rise, breathing it in as an offering to whatever muse or beloved force moves through you when you are at your most radiant and most creatively alive.

Sit with the pyrite resting on your chest and the frankincense smoke curling in the air, and let yourself feel — without rushing past it — the genuine pleasure of wanting something beautiful and knowing you are capable of having it.

Place the pyrite at the base of the gold candle to seal the intention, and let the frankincense burn as the candle burns, so that the scent of this moment becomes the signal your body recognizes when joy arrives.

YOU WILL NEED

gold candle

pyrite

frankincense

♪ gentle jazz or sensual acoustic strings