

FULL MOON IN PISCES · THURSDAY, 12 SEPTEMBER 2030

Gemini

This ritual is for career, ambition, and public life.

Ambition lit by the right moon does not burn with desperation — it burns with direction.

PREPARATION

Face east. Clear your workspace completely — every loose paper, every distraction — until the surface in front of you is clean and deliberate. Silence all notifications and let only the chosen music occupy the air. Pour a glass of wine or warm tea, hold the cup, and drink slowly, feeling the clarity of the act. Close your eyes and picture yourself at the height of the professional vision you carry — not a vague hope, but a specific scene: the room, the light, the sense of having arrived at something real. Open your eyes only when the image sharpens into something you can almost touch.

THE RITUAL

Light the yellow candle and sit with perfect stillness for one breath, letting the act of ignition mark the line between ordinary evening and sacred intention.

Roll the citrine between your palms until it grows warm, then set it directly in front of the flame and declare aloud one concrete step in your career or public life that this Pisces full moon is clearing the path toward.

Bruise a few sprigs of lavender between your fingers and hold them beneath your nose, letting the scent anchor you in the body and the present moment — because every great ambition begins in the body that must do the work.

Hold the citrine up to the yellow candle flame so the light catches inside it, and let yourself see, clearly and without apology, the version of your public life you are no longer willing to postpone.

Place the citrine on top of the bruised lavender and let the yellow candle burn down by one inch before you extinguish it — the intention is set, and the east is carrying it forward.

YOU WILL NEED

yellow candle

citrine

lavender

♪ minimal focused ambient or slow ceremonial drumming