

FULL MOON IN GEMINI · FRIDAY, 16 NOVEMBER 2035

Leo

This ritual is for friendships, community, and future goals.

A full moon in Gemini knows that no one becomes who they are meant to be entirely alone — and tonight, your circle and your future are the same subject.

PREPARATION

Face south. Arrange the space with a spirit of generosity — as if you were setting it for someone you love, because in a sense you are setting it for the version of yourself that is part of something larger. Let soft choral music or ambient sound rise just barely beneath the quiet. Pour a glass of golden wine or a cup of honeyed tea, hold it up briefly as if in a toast before drinking, and take a slow deliberate sip. Close your eyes and picture your people — not all of them, just the ones that matter most — and then picture the future you are building that includes them: see it with color and detail, feel the specific warmth of being surrounded and supported. Open your eyes only when that image feels like something real rather than something wished for. The ritual begins now.

THE RITUAL

Light the gold candle and let it burn for a full minute before moving, watching the flame and letting it call to mind every person in your life who has genuinely cheered for your growth and forward motion.

Place a piece of frankincense resin on a small heat-safe dish near the candle or hold it briefly over the flame until the scent begins to release, letting the smoke rise as a message sent outward toward the people and goals you are drawing closer under this Gemini moon.

Hold the pyrite in both hands and name aloud one future goal — something that feels just slightly larger than what you have already done — and one person in your life who belongs to that future with you.

Set the pyrite beside the gold candle and write on paper the goal you named, adding one concrete step you will take before the next new moon to move toward it, folding the paper and placing it beneath the stone.

Let the gold candle burn for at least ten more minutes while you sit with the music and the light, and when you extinguish it, do so with gratitude — pressing your fingers briefly to the still-warm wax as a closing touch that says this is real and I am ready.

YOU WILL NEED

gold candle

pyrite

frankincense

♪ uplifting ambient or soft choral tones