

FULL MOON IN SAGITTARIUS · TUESDAY, 22 MAY 2035

Scorpio

This ritual is for money, income, and material security.

Real security is not built on hope — it is built on the unflinching willingness to see exactly where you are and move from there.

PREPARATION

Face north. Ground the space before anything else — press your feet flat to the floor and feel the floor pressing back, because this ritual is not about wishes, it is about foundations. Silence everything electronic except the music you have chosen, and let the low frequency of it settle in your chest before you proceed. Pour a glass of something substantial — dark wine, strong tea, anything that asks to be respected rather than rushed — hold the glass steady in both hands and take one deliberate sip before placing it on the table. Close your eyes and picture your financial life with total honesty: the number in your account, the work you do, the gap between what exists and what is needed — hold it without flinching, without dramatizing, without looking away. Open your eyes when the facts feel neutral rather than frightening. The ritual begins now.

THE RITUAL

Light the black candle slowly, understanding that black is not absence but the color of deep earth and serious intention — this flame is a commitment, not a comfort.

Hold the obsidian in your dominant hand and let its cool, polished weight pull your attention fully into the material world, naming aloud one clear, specific financial goal you are ready to work toward under this Sagittarius full moon.

Light the myrrh incense or resin and let the ancient, resinous smoke move through the space, understanding that this particular scent has been used across centuries to mark moments of serious transition — your intention belongs in that lineage.

Write on paper the single most practical action you can take within the next three days to move toward material stability — not a plan, just one action — and read it aloud twice so the words exist in the room as fact, not fantasy.

Place the obsidian on top of the paper beneath the black candle and let the myrrh finish burning as the seal, knowing that what has been spoken clearly in the dark carries its own particular gravity.
