Libra

This ritual is for travel, beliefs, and expanding horizons.

There are versions of your life that can only be reached by moving toward what you do not yet understand.

PREPARATION

Face south. Open something — a window, a curtain, a door to another room — because the energy you are working with tonight needs air and movement. Tidy the space gently but do not over-control it; a little freedom in the arrangement is appropriate. Silence your devices and let the music breathe around you. Pour a glass of something adventurous — a wine you haven't tried before, or a tea from somewhere you've never been — hold it in your hands and smell it before you sip. Close your eyes and picture yourself somewhere entirely new: a landscape, a conversation, a belief you haven't held before but that fits you perfectly. Feel the expansion in your ribcage, the particular excitement of a horizon that hasn't been named yet. Open your eyes when that feeling is real in your body. The ritual begins now.

THE RITUAL

Light the pink candle and let your gaze travel the flame for a full breath, knowing that this light is an invitation to a wider, more richly textured experience of the world under the adventurous sky of Gemini.

Place three drops of ylang ylang oil on your wrists — one drop on the left, one on the right, one at the base of your throat — and breathe the scent in as a full-bodied willingness to receive what is foreign and beautiful and new.

Hold the rose quartz in your open palm and name aloud the belief, journey, or philosophy that is calling to you this cycle — the one that feels slightly too large for the life you currently live.

Carry the rose quartz to the open window or door you created, hold it toward the outside air for a moment, then bring it back to your heart, completing a gesture that says: I am open, and I am also rooted.

Return the rose quartz to rest beside the pink candle in the soft scent of the ylang ylang, and sit for five breaths watching the flame lean and recover, understanding that the ritual is complete and the horizon has already shifted.
